BOSTON HEIGHTS, Ohio, Aug. 27, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Arhaus (NASDAQ: ARHS), a leader in artisan-crafted and responsibly sourced home furnishings, today announced the launch of its Fall 2026 Collection, featured in The Anniversary Issue celebrating the brand's 40th anniversary. The collection reflects four decades of artisan partnerships, global sourcing, and enduring craftsmanship while continuing to push the brand's assortment forward. Richly figured woods, expressive natural stone, saturated upholstery, and unexpected applications of fabric come together in a season defined by a new confidence in color and materiality. New arrivals from the Fall 2026 Collection are available now at Arhaus.com and in more than 100 showrooms nationwide.

"Forty years ago, we opened our first showroom with a simple idea—to offer beautiful, thoughtfully made pieces that were different from anything else we were seeing," said John Reed, Arhaus Co-Founder and CEO. "This collection reflects how far we've come while staying true to that original vision. It brings together incredible materials, artisan craftsmanship, and relationships we've built over decades. It's the kind of assortment that could only come from forty years of knowing who we are and what we stand for."

LIVING IN FULL COLOR

Inspired by nature, the Fall 2026 Collection introduces one of Arhaus' boldest color stories to date with a rich palette of grounded greens, storied reds, and heritage blues that treat color as a design statement rather than an accent. The Fall catalog opens with the best-selling Kirston Slim Arm Sectional in Andie Olive, shown in the new Elevated style offering, where six-inch wooden feet bring a lighter, more refined presence to familiar Arhaus upholstery silhouettes. Green carries into other materials and forms, from the Bony Pendant in green glass to the sculptural Zyra Coffee Table, crafted from natural green onyx. From there, the palette shifts to oxblood across both upholstery and casegoods, including the Corlanti Sofa and high-gloss lacquer Byer Media Console, while heritage blues emerge on the Gatlin Glass Cabinet and Henley Dresser, bringing another layer of expressive color to the collection.

STATEMENT-MAKING STONE

Expanding one of Arhaus' signature materials, this fall marks the debut of the brand's Made-to-Order Stone program, offering clients a curated selection of 12 natural stones and marbles sourced from renowned quarries around the world. Available across Saint Germain, Danase, and Ilaria dining and occasional collections, as well as select Vaso, Raven, and Verdiz bath designs, the program brings a new level of personalization to some of Arhaus' most distinctive silhouettes. The assortment spans 10 marbles—including Carrara, Black Marquina, Calacatta Viola, Arabescato, Rosso Francia, and Raggio Verde—and two limestones, Bluestone and Grey Travertine.

RADIANT & REMARKABLE WOOD

The collection's celebration of natural materiality continues through wood, where distinctive grain, depth, and inherent variation become defining elements of the design. The new Palma Collection pairs richly figured cerejeira and primavera veneers to create warmth and dimension across dining, bedroom, wall, and media console designs. The story continues with the Frances Bedroom Collection, crafted from mahogany and book-matched figured mahogany veneer, and the Bedding Collection, where reclaimed oak veneer celebrates the knots, cracks, and natural variations that give each piece its distinctive character.

THE COLLECTED HOME

The season also expands upon The Collected Home, Arhaus' celebration of interiors that feel gathered over time rather than designed all at once. Rooted in enduring design and rich materiality, new introductions blend traditional forms and decorative details with a fresh, relaxed point of view. The McKinley Sofa with Fringe, Augustus Chair with Fringe, and Polly Chair bring rolled arms, tailored details, and decorative trim into the assortment, while the Grant Media Console, wrapped in Eden Flax InsideOut[®] Performance Fabric, and Fresca Sideboard, crafted in oak and wrapped in linen, introduce fabric to silhouettes traditionally defined by wood. Further expanding opportunities for personalization, the new Arhaus Trim Collection offers exclusive leathers, custom thread colors, and refined finishing details, while artisan hand-knotted rugs bring additional warmth, texture, and depth to layered interiors.

ELEVATED ENTERTAINING

Every memorable gathering begins with considered details. This fall, Arhaus expands its entertaining assortment with new bars, bar carts, tabletop, and serveware designed to make hosting feel as effortless as it is inviting. Leading the season is the Coventry Bar Cabinet, crafted from reeded white oak with a Carrara marble top and integrated LED lighting, alongside the new Davana Bar Collection and Silas and Poppy Bar Carts. New tabletop introductions, including Rhoswen and Saskia dinnerware, Aurelian serveware, and Della Cocktail Glasses, complete the story, offering thoughtfully designed pieces for every occasion.
